CALL FOR PAPERS

The Department of Language and Literature at Lee University cordially invites submissions for the VII Annual Undergraduate Interdisciplinary Conference on Latin American and Iberian Studies on April 14, 2018. This conference will bring together undergraduate students and professors from a wide variety of disciplines.

The conference focuses primarily on the languages, literatures and cultures of Latin America and Spain, but interdisciplinary submissions will also be accepted from related areas including Service Learning, Cross-Cultural Experiences, foreign language methodology, and others.

Please send a one-page abstract of approximately 250 words as an MS-Word document that clearly identifies the aim(s) of the paper, the rationale of the study, and finding (if applicable). Since we recognize that not all papers will be completed by the conference date, “works in progress” will be accepted. Send the proposal/abstract via email to asteffanell@leeuniversity.edu by March 7, 2018. Include your name, institutional affiliation, and email address as well as a brief biography and any kind of technology needed. All presentations will have a 10-12 minute limit.

Abstracts and papers may be submitted in English, Portuguese, Spanish or French. A $10 registration fee is required if you are presenting; this fee includes the cost of breakfast and lunch.
