Pending budgetary approval, the Less-Commonly-Taught Languages Center of the Department of Linguistics, University of Pittsburgh, seeks applications for one position of a non-tenure-stream Assistant Instructor for all levels of Quechua language instruction. The initial contract will run from September 1, 2018 through August 30, 2019 and is renewable.

Qualification Requirements:

- MA in Quechua, language teaching, linguistics, or a related field
- At least 3 years of experience in teaching all levels of Quechua in an academic setting
- Native or near-native ability in Quechua
- Good command of spoken and written English

The position will have responsibility for teaching 27 credits per year. Some additional administrative responsibilities may be assigned.

Salary and benefits:

- Access to the University’s retirement program and full medical benefits
- Salary range depends on qualifications and experience

Apply here: https://facultysearch.as.pitt.edu/apply/index/MjEx by uploading a letter of application, a current CV, a teaching statement (including any non-language courses you might be interested in teaching), proof of teaching effectiveness (e.g., student surveys, peer and supervisor reviews), and three letters of recommendation. Questions may be addressed to Dr. Claude Mauk, Director, Less-Commonly-Taught Languages Center (cemauk@pitt.edu).

Deadline: January 15, 2018

The University of Pittsburgh is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and values equality of opportunity, human dignity and diversity. EEO/AA/M/F/Vets/Disabled.