LATINO/A or LATINX CULTURAL STUDIES, HUNTER COLLEGE, CUNY

The Department of Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies at Hunter College seeks a mid-career or senior scholar (Associate Professor or Full Professor) for a tenured position beginning in fall 2018. Fields of specialization are open, but preference will be for candidates with primary research and teaching interests in the areas of Latino/a or Latinx Cultural Studies. The successful candidate would possess a demonstrated research agenda that critically explores either popular culture, literary expressions, social media, technology, racialization, performance and performativity in Latino/a/x Diasporic communities. Applicants should hold a PhD in Cultural Studies, Anthropology, Literature, Sociology or any of the equivalent fields of the social sciences or humanities.

Applicants will be reviewed on a rolling basis beginning November 22, 2017. Supporting materials and questions about the position should be directed to the chair of the department:

Dr. Anthony Browne
apbrowne@hunter.cuny.edu

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Hunter College is committed to active engagement with students and the community at large, and embraces equity, inclusiveness, and global awareness in all dimensions of our work. CUNY encourages people with disabilities, minorities, veterans and women to apply. At CUNY, Italian Americans are also included among our protected groups. Applicants and employees will not be discriminated against on the basis of any legally protected category, including sexual orientation or gender identity. EEO/AA/Vet/Disability Employer.