A LETTER TO THE MEMBERSHIP

With this issue, the Newsletter goes into a new format. We hope members will like it, even though we shall not, in this new format, be able to publish such lengthy articles or notes as in the past. Indeed, this issue is almost entirely devoted to the program of the Seventh National Meeting, meaning that most newsletter items on hand have had to be deferred to the June issue. Nevertheless, in spite of the new limitations of space, we as always invite membership contributions and suggestions. We shall do our best to accommodate you. With the aid of the Latin American Research Review (LARR), which will publish part of the historical record of the Association, we hope to continue to attempt to offer as broad a view as possible of Latin American Studies in this country and elsewhere.

The Newsletter will continue to appear quarterly, with issues in March, June, September, and December of 1977. Copy deadlines are the 10th of the month preceding the month of publication. Please continue to send us your Personal and Institutional News, even though the Newsletter will no longer carry the form we have been using for this purpose. Please keep your Notes and News as brief as possible. New members wishing to see a sample of the old Newsletter are invited to write the Secretariat.

With this issue of the Newsletter, too, the Association begins its eleventh year. Though in this period, total membership in all categories has gone from zero to 1686 in 1976, with a high of 1771 in 1974, the Association has continued to suffer the relentless inroads of inflation. Raises in dues have partially offset increased costs, but not entirely, especially in view of membership categories which essentially defray only the cost of the LARR subscription. Yet, these special categories meet the special needs of members—graduate students, emeritus, joint, Latin American—and we believe it is important to serve these publics.

The LASA membership dollar breaks down as follows, in gross terms. Using the basic membership rate of $18.00 (keeping in mind that not all members pay this rate), at least half or approximately $9.00 goes to LARR (subscription cost of $8.00 plus list maintenance, mailing labels, postage, xeroking, etc.). The remaining $9.00 must finance all other activities of the Association, including operations of the Secretariat, the Executive Council, and National Meetings. In dollar terms, our two biggest and most costly activities, financed entirely out of dues and other non-grant income, are our scholarly journal, LARR, and our National Meetings. Though we try to make National Meetings as self-supporting as possible, this cannot always be the case. In addition, the Association must advance the funds needed for National Meetings and hope to recover these funds at a later date through registration fees, advertising, and the like.

The Association has been fortunate in that, since 1972, it has received generous grants from the Ford and Tinker Foundations to finance special committee projects and additional activities, which could not have been undertaken with dues income alone. The Association's important new initiative in the teaching/pedagogical/outreach area, for example, is a direct beneficiary of such support. Our active publications program, including the Newsletter and other studies and reference works distributed either gratis or at cost to members, has also been a beneficiary.

Yet, in all of this we feel a certain affinity with Scylla and Charybdis, for the Association's Secretariat and Executive Council do not directly benefit from outside grant support— at the very moment demands upon these institutions are greatest. We thus have an embarrassment of riches, but riches from which the executive center of the Association is excluded. I need not point out that it is the executive center—the Secretariat and the Executive Council—which attempts to serve the needs of members, all members, and which, with active Committee and membership support and participation, is charged with planning, supervising, and carrying out Association activities.

What to do, therefore? The answer is precisely what we have been undertaking over the past year or so: a vigorous new membership campaign to bring previously-neglected colleagues into the fold and incidentally increase dues income, and judicious austerity in the expenditure of Association income, grant and non-grant. The new and less expensive format of the Newsletter is a reflection of the latter policy, as is the decision of the Executive Council to meet in full session only once a year, beginning in 1977. Other economies are under study and will be undertaken, so long as they do not interfere with vital services to members or cripple on-going projects. In a sense, we have been moving toward zero-base budgeting, and our 1977 budget reflects this economic fact of life, as will those of subsequent years.

We beseech membership indulgence in this process, and trust that we have not, and will not, tamper with our primary mission of service to LASA members, Latin Americanists, and Latin American Studies. Indeed, over the next few years, it is our hope to expand services, in spite of financial exigencies, by curtailing activities no longer necessary or productive. In this, as in all Association matters, we are relying heavily upon membership enthusiasm and support. We invite, for a future Newsletter symposium, membership views on LASA ten years hence and in between. I have tried, in this brief report, to tell you where we are. Now, perhaps, you would like to tell us all where we should be going.
ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELIMINARY BALLOTS FOR THE 1977 ELECTION were mailed to all paid members on March 9, 1977. Candidates for Vice-President are Margaret E. Crahan (History, CUNY/Lehman) and William E. Glade (Economics, U. of Texas/Austin). Candidates for Executive Council are Lourdes Casal (Psychology, Rutgers U.), Juan E. Corradi (NYU), Jean Franco (Literature, Stanford U.), Louis Wolf Goodman (Sociology, SSRC), Carlos Munoz (Political Science, U. of California/Berkeley), Alfred Stepan (Political Science, Yale U.).

Bidding for the TRANSFER OF THE LASA SECRETARIAT has been reopened. Interested institutions are invited to submit bids by July 30, 1977, so that candidates for Executive Director can be interviewed at the November, 1977, Executive Council meeting in Houston. For bid specifications, please see the March, 1975, Newsletter or write the Executive Director.

THE COMMITTEE ON WOMEN IN LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES reminds the membership of its interdisciplinary prize in Latin American Women's Studies, with the first award to be made at the 1977 Seventh National Meeting in Houston. The prize includes a travel and expenses grant to a maximum of $150 to enable the winner to attend the National Meeting at which the award is conferred. Requirements include the following: membership in LASA (male and female) at the time of submission; unpublished research paper or manuscript which has not been submitted elsewhere; not exceeding 30 pages typed, double spaced in length, and written in English; submission by June 1, 1977, of seven (7) copies of paper and seven (7) copies of abstract. Papers will be judged by members of the Women's Committee. All papers submitted should be in Latin American Research Review (LARR) format. Address all inquiries, submissions, etc., to the Secretariat, Box 13362 University Station, Gainesville FL 32604.

1977 FACT SHEETS were mailed to all paid members with the preliminary ballot. If you did not receive one, or need extra copies for prospective members, please write the Secretariat. Fact Sheets in Spanish or Portuguese are also available from the Secretariat for distribution to your colleagues abroad.

GROUP FLIGHTS TO THE HOUSTON NATIONAL MEETING are now being explored by the Secretariat. Though we are not yet certain whether flights can be arranged, we should appreciate knowing how many members would be interested in such reduced-rate flights, and from what gateway cities they would wish to depart. A simple postcard to the Secretariat, with your name, address and business telephone; gateway city; and travel dates would be of great aid to the Secretariat in attempting to arrange group or charter flights. The June Newsletter will carry further details.

BALLOTS FOR THE 1972, 1973, AND 1974 ELECTIONS are taking up much-needed storage space at the Secretariat. May we request that, if members have questions regarding these ballots or elections, they write or telephone the Secretariat before June 1, 1977? If no such inquiries are received, the ballots will be destroyed. Henceforth, a three-year statute of limitations will apply to election ballots, with the deadline for inquiries June 1 of each year.

Nominations for the SECOND LASA CITATION FOR DISTINGUISHED SCHOLARLY CONTRIBUTION to a non-academic periodical and the THIRD LASA CITATION FOR DISTINGUISHED REPORTING ON LATIN AMERICA are now being accepted. The deadline for all submissions is September 1, 1977. Awards will be announced at the National Meeting in Houston. The former citation recognizes scholars who have helped disseminate their knowledge of Latin America, while the latter honors working journalists. Both citations will be awarded by prize committees composed of individuals from different disciplines. For the Contribution Citation, members, or colleagues whom they are nominating, should furnish four copies of no more than three articles appearing in non-refereed publications between February 1-September 1, 1977. For the Reporting Citation, four copies of three articles printed in English should be submitted in either of two categories: reporting in a daily paper or reporting appearing weekly, bi-weekly, monthly, or quarterly. Again, articles must have been published during the period February 1-September 1, 1977. Please send all nominations and submissions to the Secretariat for forwarding to the prize committees.
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter from Klaus de Albuquerque, December 13, 1976:

Professor Wayne Cornelius
Apartado 6
Lagos de Moreno, Jalisco, Mexico

Dear Professor Cornelius:

Surely you know there is no such thing as a "definitive reply", and before you write me another three page letter with the intent of rapping me on the knuckles, you had better consider the following.

My letter of July 5, 1976, included a supplementary description of the panel on the sheet provided by you for that purpose. No where in your mailing was there any suggestion that a detailed description of your panel was more desirable. In fact, from your mailing I got the distinct impression that this was only the first step and that specificity regarding content and the participants would be elicited at a later date. You mention a letter of acknowledgement specifically encouraging participants to submit to you names and other information on persons who might be considered as participants on the various panels. No such letter was ever received by me, in fact, my letter of October 4 should have conveyed this information to you. In this same letter, I also asked you whether panel J33 listed in the September (1976) LASA Newsletter, was the panel I had proposed. I was under the distinct impression that it was (with some amendments), for as you yourself admit, you incorporated my description (not contained in my letter of July 5 but on the appended sheet) of the proposed panel on non-institutional medicine in J33. While you may consider this to be the normal procedure, I consider it highly misleading, and it was productive of this entire misunderstanding. Furthermore, if you had only taken the time to respond to my letter of October 4, informing me that it was Dr. Thomas Bossert's panel that was under consideration, the entire issue would not have arisen.

I chose not to adopt the procedure of "overkill" (I am not so sure of my importance and I do not take myself that seriously), which explains why you did not receive several typed written pages using the appropriate jargon and twelve pages of vitas. Under normal procedure these should have been elicited from me at a later date. They were not.

Finally, I have no quarrel with Dr. Bossert—so I see little need for your paragraph justifying his credentials. In my note to him, I reassured him that my letter to you was in no way to be construed as an attack on him. I am sure he did more than a creditable job in outlining a panel on health care. My argument is with you, and I am not casting aspersions at anyone else. Colleagues who know me would hardly think me so presumptuous—in fact, they would be somewhat surprised at my exchange of letters with you, for I generally keep my mouth shut and let the academic heavyweights practice their Spanish, orchestrate and oversee journals, all of course, in the interest of ensuring that the right people move through the tracking system. From now on I shall do what I do best (keep my mouth shut), so consider this letter to be my "definitive reply" to your "definitive reply". However, I will insist very forcefully that this letter be included in the next LASA Newsletter as a rejoinder to your letter of November 30, 1976. This way the membership of the LASA should have most of the facts at their disposal.

Cordially,

/s/ Klaus de Albuquerque

Letter from Wayne A. Cornelius, December 31, 1976:
Professor Klaus de Albuquerque
Department of Sociology
Wofford College
Spartanburg, South Carolina 29301

Dear Professor de Albuquerque:

In reply to your letter of December 13, Program Committee records show that a letter acknowledging receipt of your initial proposal of July 5, 1976, was sent to you. I regret that it apparently did not reach you.
The "supplementary description" of the proposed panel which accompanied your letter of July 5 is reproduced below. It does not go beyond the proposed title of the panel.

Name Klaus de Albuquerque
Institution/organization Wofford College Box 9
City Spartanburg State S.C. Zip 29301
Department Sociology Telephone (include Area Code) 803-585-4821 Ext. 257

To present paper on: Some aspects of African inspired belief systems in the Caribbean (tentative--depending on other commitments). Propose new joint (African-Latin American) panel on: "Non-institutional (indigenous or traditional) medical systems and health care delivery in Africa and Latin America."

Your letter of October 4 did not request a reply in advance of the Program Committee's decision on your proposal. Both Dr. Bossert's and your idea for a health care panel were fully considered by the Committee during our meetings of October 27-31, 1976.

Sincerely yours,

FILM PROGRAMMING AT THE 1977 NATIONAL MEETING

Tentative plans call for 8-10 hours per day of continuous film screening. The program will include as wide a range as possible of documentary and feature films in commercial distribution from Latin America and Africa.

An effort will also be made to provide a screening forum for independent films made by the membership of LASA/ASA or by other film groups with relevant thematic interests. Independent filmmakers or producers who would like to have their work shown should provide the title, duration, and a full description of the content of the film by May 1, 1977.

Projection facilities will be restricted to 16mm only. Persons willing to schedule films in Super-8 must provide the necessary equipment and take responsibility for screening the film.

To qualify for consideration, all programming suggestions and requests should be sent by May 1 to Julianne Burton, Kresge College, University of California, Santa Cruz CA 95064.
FORTHCOMING CONFERENCES

The SECOND SYMPOSIUM ON AFRO-HISPANIC LITERATURE, co-sponsored by Medgar Evers College/CUNY and the Center for Inter-American Relations will be held on Friday, June 3, 1977. Original papers are being solicited by the Symposium coordinators, Clementine Rabassa and Gladys Seda-Rodriguez. Papers on pertinent topics, including Afro-Luso-Brazilian themes, should be eight to ten pages in length, accompanied by a one-page abstract and stamped return envelope. Correspondence and papers should be directed to either coordinator at Humanities Division, Medgar Evers College, 1150 Carroll ST, Brooklyn NY 11225.

The 1977 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES (CALAS/ACELA), announced without the meeting dates in the December, 1976 LASA Newsletter, will be held in Bogotá, Colombia on May 9, 10 and 11, 1977.

The CONFERENCE OF LATIN AMERICANIST GEOGRAPHERS (CLA/GE) announce the first INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF LATIN AMERICANIST GEOGRAPHERS in Paipa, Colombia, August 8-12, 1977. The general theme for this congress is "The Role of Geographic Research in Latin America and the Caribbean." The objective of the meeting is to examine the scientific contribution of geography, present and projected, in the social, economic, and cultural life of the region. Interested geographers are invited to present their ideas on special sessions as well as papers within the sessions themselves. For further information please contact Prof. Tom L. Martinson, Chairman, Board of Directors, Conference of Latin Americanist Geographers, Dept. of Geography & Geology, Ball State University, Muncie IN 47306.

HAMLINE UNIVERSITY announces a four-week College Faculty Institute on LATIN AMERICA: DEVELOPMENT AND CONTEMPORARY PROBLEMS. The Institute, to run from June 6 to July 1, 1977, will consist of a series of lectures and discussion sessions designed to augment the background of college teachers in an area frequently neglected by the undergraduate curriculum. Twenty-five faculty fellowships will be awarded on a competitive basis to cover all tuition, room and board, and travel up to $175. The college will certify 4 semester hours of graduate credit, if desired. For further information and application forms, write to Dr. John J. Harrigan, Director, Institute on Latin America, Hamline University, St. Paul MN 55104.

The LATIN AMERICAN ANTHROPOLOGY GROUP (LAAG) intends to sponsor a symposium on the topic "Migration Across Frontiers: Mexico and the United States" at the November, 1977, meetings of the American Anthropological Association. LAAG is especially eager to have a balance between U.S. and Mexican scholars among paper presenters and discussants. Interested scholars should send a title and abstract of their proposed contributions to either of the coordinators: Fernando Cámara B. (INAH, Córdoba 45, México 7, D.F., México) or Robert V. Kemper (Dept. of Anthropology, SMU, Dallas TX 75275).

On October 20-22, 1977, the University of Santa Clara and San Jose State University will co-host the 23rd ANNUAL MEETING OF THE PACIFIC COAST COUNCIL ON LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES at the LeBaron Hotel in San Jose. For further information contact either Prof. Feliciano Rivera at San Jose State or Prof. Matt S. Meier, University of Santa Clara.

The 1977 SOUTH EASTERN CONFERENCE ON LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES (SECOLAS) will be held April 21-23 at Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama. The program, entitled "Race and Culture in Latin America," will also include film screenings. For further information, write L.A. Clayton, Box 74, University AL 35486.

The second SOUTHERN LABOR HISTORY CONFERENCE is planned for April or early May, 1978, at Georgia State University, Atlanta. The program committee is particularly interested in developing sessions around topics such as Southern state labor movements, steel workers, public employees, waterfront-maritime workers, agricultural workers, and inter-American labor in the Caribbean area. Proposals should be submitted by June 1, 1977 to Prof. Merl E. Reed, c/o Southern Labor Archives, Georgia State University, Atlanta GA 30303.

The TRI-UNIVERSITY CENTER OF LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES is sponsoring a conference on "Images of God and Man in Latin America," to be held at Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas, April 14-16. For information write Bradley Shaw, UCLAS, Kansas State University, Manhattan KS 66506.

The UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA is planning a comprehensive THIRD WORLD CONFERENCE for October 27-29, 1977. Persons interested in participating should write to Prof. Carl H. Camp, Program Chairman, Office of International Studies & Programs, University of Nebraska at Omaha, Omaha NB 68101.
SEVENTH NATIONAL MEETING
Houston, Texas, November 2-5, 1977
FOURTH REPORT OF THE LASA PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Reproduced below is the preliminary program for two sections of the Joint National meeting of LASA and ASA: sessions dealing exclusively with Latin American topics, and sessions dealing comparatively with Latin American and Africa. The final section of the program, which includes sessions limited to African topics, is currently being organized. We must emphasize that the information pertaining to many of the LASA and joint LASA-ASA panels is incomplete and based on progress reports received from panel chairpersons by March 11, 1977. Many additional persons not listed below have been invited to participate in various sessions but have not yet confirmed their availability. Others have indicated their desire to participate, but their participation will depend upon the availability of travel funds. (The Program Committee is continuing to pursue travel funds for Latin American participants.) Questions about specific panels should be addressed to the panel chairperson, not the Program Committee. Complete mailing addresses for panel chairpersons were published in the December, 1976, issue of this Newsletter.

Pre-registration materials for the Houston meeting will be mailed to all LASA and ASA members on June 1. A booklet containing the final program and abstracts of all papers to be presented at the meeting will be mailed to all members on July 1. We hope that you will make plans now to attend as much as possible of the Houston meeting, which represents the first joint national meeting of major area studies associations in the United States, and the largest and most diverse national meeting in LASA's history.

Panel L22: LATIN AMERICAN INTELLECTUALS AND THE 'MYTH OF UNDERDEVELOPMENT'. Presiding: Howard J. Wiarda (U. of Massachusetts)

Description: Latin America has frequently been assigned the label of "underdeveloped," not only in terms of various economic indices, where the measures are fairly clear and precise, but in social, political, psychological, even moral terms as well, where the measures tend to be far more ambiguous and culture-bound. It is perhaps not surprising that North American political science and sociology accepted these measures and the labels that went with them; what is more interesting is that so many Latin American intellectuals also accepted these measures and this literature (à la Deutsch, Lipset, Almond, etc.) and thus bought the "myth" of their own socio-political or moral "underdevelopment" and "incapacity." This panel seeks to explore why Latin American intellectuals so widely accepted the "myth" of their own nations' "underdevelopment." It also seeks to examine whether a distinctly Latin American political science and sociology, as distinct from the North American one, is feasible or desirable, and what the ingredients of such a new political sociology might be. (This description is reproduced at the request of the panel chairperson.)

OPEN MEETINGS
(Sponsored by the Latin American Studies Association)

Open Meeting M1: CURRENT EVENTS IN LATIN AMERICAN AND INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS. Presiding: Abraham F. Lowenthal (Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars)

This open meeting will provide a structured opportunity for an exchange of views on one or two topics in regional affairs of primary interest at the time of the Houston meeting. Details will be announced at the meeting. Suggestions for topics and participants should be forwarded to Dr. Lowenthal by September 15, 1977.

Open Meeting M2: ETHICAL PROBLEMS OF RESEARCH IN LATIN AMERICA. Presiding: Jan K. Black (U. of New Mexico)

Problems to be discussed include: How to protect Latin American scholars who collaborate with U.S. researchers against reprisals by their own governments; how to make U.S. researchers less vulnerable to exploitation or intimidation by governments; how U.S. researchers can reestablish their own credibility as scholars, in the aftermath of disclosures of covert relationships between government agencies and academic researchers.

Open Meeting M4: HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES ON CUBAN ECONOMY AND SOCIETY. Presiding: Margaret E. Crahan (Lehman College, CUNY)
